THE DATA

89.1%

Owner Occupancy Rate (2024)

Lakehills leads the Texas Hill Country in owner-occupied housing, surpassing all other cities in the region.

This figure reflects deep-rooted community stability and long-term investment in place. With 89.1% of homes owner-occupied, Lakehills stands apart from transient or vacation-heavy markets. The data suggests a demographic that prioritizes permanence, not speculation.

01

Ownership Is a Strategic Advantage

The 89.1% rate signals a market where long-term planning is the norm—not the exception—making it a strategic choice for those seeking enduring value.

02

Stability Without Stagnation

This model challenges the assumption that growth requires investor-driven turnover. The Hill Country may be leading a new paradigm: growth with ownership, not against it.
